NORFOLK, VA., May 22.—The game between the pitchers' battle between Otey and Eckstone was a most interesting one. Otey was in the box for the first time since his return from the hospital. He was given good support and showed wonderful control and excellent head work in close places.

The game was marred only by the kicking of Shaffer, who wanted the umpire to give him everything. It was decided by the umpire that he was not to be given anything. He was given good support and showed wonderful control and excellent head work in close places.

WALTER CLARKSON, the famous ex-Harvard twirler, who made an enviable reputation for himself in fast company as a member of the New York American League baseball team, and who has recently been traded to Cleveland. Toward the latter part of last season Clarkson was in poor health and out of form, but the great Lajoie thinks he has made a good bargain, and the Cleveland fans are expecting much from this youngster, who has performed notable work so far this year.

DANVILLE LOSES TO HIGHLANDERS

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

DANVILLE, VA., May 22.—The Highlanders won the last of the series here to-day by a score of 2 to 1, the local team being unable to connect with Morrissey when his were badly needed. Lavender who twirled for the locals, pitched superb ball, but his own slowness in fielding his position in the first and seventh innings was responsible for his defeat. The score:

McGuire's School won the Preparatory League championship yesterday by defeating High School in an interesting and hard fought game by 7 to 4.

The game was characterized by two fast double plays, McGuire's players figuring in both. The two Miller brothers at first and second base pulled off the first, while Pitcher Moseley and W. Miller took honors in the second. The score:

one base on balls and fanned ten tters. The batting of Forsyth was no a feature. Out of the five times at this crack third-baseman came to
at he secured four pretty singles.
